

Integration-by-Parts Characterizations of Gaussian Processes

Tommi Sottinen, University of Vaasa, Finland

The Stein's lemma characterizes the (multivariate) Gaussian distributions via an integration-by-parts formula. We show that a similar integration-by-parts formula involving Malliavin derivatives instead of classical derivatives characterizes a wide class of Gaussian processes, the so-called Gaussian Fredholm processes.